

SIX TWILIGHTS

SIX TWILIGHTS

Six Twilights is a music and video project by Aaron Gerber of the Portland based band A Weather. The music is a collection of carefully recorded bits of hushed, delicate male and female vocals, warm acoustic guitars and melancholy piano all rearranged in non-repetative patterns which sometimes resemble songs in the traditional sense and sometimes veer more towards ambient electronic atmospheres. The accompanying DVD is a visual counterpoint to the music: tiny moments of nostalgic, essentialized forms swaying and bending to the warm rushes of sound.

FatCat Records' Dave Howell on Six Twilights:

Based on recordings of their two sweet voices and picked acoustic guitars, these source recordings are then shuffled and stuttered through hard disk editing, into something that's both glitchy and sharded whilst still retaining the strength of the original songs.
