ROBBER ON THE RUN

Robber on the run, their 3rd release and first for Own Records, finds the duo stepping out from the trying shadows of their first two releases and into an intense, eloquent world of sparse, finger-picked guitars, rattling synths and pianos, interplaying voices and stunning harmonies. The lyrics are collectively surreal, weaving listeners in and out of dreams and mundane realities, and every song is both concise yet monumental, never stretching past the 3-minute mark.

With Robber on the Run, Elliott and Badalov, formerly of Victory at Sea and Metal Hearts, continue to inhabit an intimate and honest space, void of the musical clutter surrounding them. As Tiny Mix Tapes wrapped up best in 2006, "Travels is a safe house in a world of confusion. Intimate and intense, with daring dialogue and characters, Travels is a compassionate gem of a pop album, and something we all dearly need more of in our lives."

RIYL: Victory at Sea, Metal Hearts, Sparklehorse, Low, Yo La Tengo.
